

Dancers should take pride in their appearance. Not only a tradition, a dress code is required as part of the discipline so the line of the body may be seen clearly by the teacher and corrections in posture and placement can be made. Dancers not dressed appropriately for class (including hair) will be asked to observe classes.

All students are expected to be in clean dancewear, with hair neatly prepared for class. All hair must be out of the student's face (classical ballet bun for all female students). No hair pins flying around or falling out in class, no fly away hairs, no hair decorations or colorful bun covers. Students must wear cover ups to and from class. Nail polish is permitted. No jewelry. Absolutely no street wear, printed T-shirts, sweats or shorts are allowed in class. Dance warm-ups may be worn through plie only. Sweaters may be worn if they are very close fitting. No dangling jewelry or watches. Please, no costumes or tutus. Dress code (leotard or T-shirt color, tights, skirts) may be broken on your first scheduled class of the month.
